My sister...Jerianne. There arent enough beautiful words, eloquent phrases, that I could think to use, to describe all you mean to me. And how much I will miss you. But there is a understanding only sisters can have. A bond that will still and always be there.

Mike, we are so saddened by the loss of Jerianne. Can't imagine the pain you are suffering but the Lord does and He will comfort and strengthen you as only He can. Sorry we are so far away in Arkansas and not able to be there for the celebration service of her life. She was such a sweet lady and always had a beautiful smile for everyone. I am so glad that we were able to see both of you and visit with you while we were there for the holidays. We will treasure the memories of the times we shared together over the years. You are in our prayers.

Uncle Mike I truly am sorry for the loss of one of Gods Angles here on earth. I completely undersand what your going thru. My husband Joe Copen Passed away unexpectedly in 2010 with the same illness as Aunt Jerianne, they both where very stong loving people. But they where just so tired of fighting a long time battle that is so hard to understand. Never blame your self. Blame the illness and I know in my heart that she is in the arms of God, free of pain, anxciety, and fear. "All the things she despretly battled with most of here life and prayed for it to get better. I know at this time you think you will never get over this and in some ways you won't. But in time your heart will hurt less and less as the days, weeks, month's and years go by. You will never forget her and the wonderful times you shared, be greatfull that God brought you two together and for the memorys and the love you shared together. You will always carry her with you in your heart. I know now,years later after joe passed away he never wanted to hurt me or any one else. But he was just so tired and did not have the strangth to keep fighting. So I hope you one day understand like I have.Its better for them to be with God then here on earth in pain followed by suffering. Mike I promise Time and God will heal your broken heart. I hope this help even if it help in any way to help you get thru this terrible time. I also hope you don't get upset with the words I have typed I have always spoke from my heart and want to always help others and I know you will sit down after all of this and read this and I hope it will help you in some way. Love Always. Your Niece Amanda 12-17-12

Our prayers go out to Mike and all the family. We are sad and heartbroken over the loss of sweet Jerianne. I worked with Jerianne at Sievert Clinic, there was not a day that went by that we did not laugh. I will always remember her smile and the joy that she brought. God be with the family and may He give you peace. Our hope is in Christ and one day we will all be together again and we will laugh throughout eternity. God Bless and give you peace. Love, Kent and Teresa Loveday.

Jim and I just wanted to say how sorry we are about Jerianne. I know you are going to miss her but I want you to know that we will never forget her. She always made me feel important when I always wanted to hang around you guys years ago when I was younger. She would give me that beautiful smile and let me know I was fine. It was so obvious how much she loved you and I remember thinking how much I hoped to find that someday! We love you and are praying for you. The Lunsford Family

My condolences to Jerianne's family and friends. When she worked at First Federal we talked on the phone several times a week for business. She was always pleasant, helpful and fun to talk with. We became friendly but I don't think we ever met. I will remember her with fondness.
