I just heard of Lillian's passing and am so sorry for your loss. I knew Lillian growing up at Greendale People's Church in Worcester. I have many fond memories of her and Mary at Camp Selah. She was a woman who truly lived her faith and encouraged others to do the same. She was such a blessing to many.

I will always remember "Grammy" as a warm caring person, who was cherished by her grandchildren. Lisa spoke about her regularly, and she always shared stories about Grammy's adventures. She had a wonderful life and will be surely missed.

I was sad to hear of Grammy's death. I was honored to have met her on the Cape when India was just a baby. She was so thrilled to be there with her new great granddaughter! I enjoyed the many stories that Lisa shared about her beloved grandmother. She will be missed by many but will live on in the hearts of those she touched so deeply. Our deepest sympathy Marita, Al. I was privilege to have met Lillian (Lilly)Goodall, just a few times. But I found out things about Lilly that she was a kind loving human being who enjoyed everyday of her life. Lilly was fine lady, caring, loving Mother and a loving Grandmother and a person to get to know. Lilly will be missed by everybody who knew her, she touched everybody with her love. I will miss Lilly, but she is in a better place now doing what she loves to do and she is not alone. Robin Aaron January 6, 2012.

I first met Miss Lillian while she was vacationing with her grand daughter, Lisa, here on the Cape. I was expected to play scrabble and help with the always present jigsaw puzzle on the table. The puzzle allowed for lively conversation and plenty of laughs. Scrabble on the other hand was considered a "blood sport" to Lillian. She played with unrelenting vigor and stretched the limits of the King's English, given the chance. More laughs than I can ever remember. I'll miss those sunny days and entertaining days here on the Cape. Jordan Brooks aka "JT" Mr. Turner

Some people come into your life for a brief moment, but are remembered for a lifetime. In one word I could only describe Lilly as an "angel" that came and went as they all do, in too brief a period of time. I recall the first time I met Lilly; a delicate, refined, and rather fragile woman of unassuming grace. She wore her feminine bathing suit, swimming float, and of course (always) her signature lipstick! This was the woman that raised my dear friend (her daughter Linda) teaching by example, valor, integrity and strength; I knew there had to be more to this lovely lady – which I'd soon enough, discover. I learned that all the admirable traits I began to love about her lovely daughter were due to Lilly's quiet Wisdom and her sometimes not so quiet – Faith. I eventually came to conclude that similar to Lilly's love of family, faith and life, she would carry that same positive nature to her eternal beyond. We should all be so fortunate to have family surround us, during our life time as well as remain with us – in spirit. Lilly was so loved by all her family because somehow it's human nature to be drawn to "angels" As you made us all better souls while you were here on earth, we're grateful to keep you always in our hearts –till we meet again Suzy Berry
