Miss Rebecca, I did some work for Frank in Cadiz on your house at 100 E. Main St. He and I were introduced over the phone by Goerge and Dot and although I did not see him face to face I will always be greatfull for his kind words of encouragement. I am back out west now and think of the Beorns often but never without thinking of Mr Frank also. T hank you both so much. Ed

Rebecca, I have been very blessed to have met you and Frank. May all of my sympathy be with you and your family through your time of grief. Frank was the most loving, dedicated husband, who showed me the true meaning of love. Rebecca, know that Frank loved you very much and he will be waiting for you with open arms. All of my condolences, Rebekah Bowser (MA at Dr. Baquero's)

Becky, Frank represented to me as the most dedicated husband that a wife could possibly ask for. He was to me like my second father. Over the years, numerous conversations regarding business resulted in his being instrumental in paving the way for my success. He was my mentor and my second father. Thank you Frank for all these years. We shall miss him. My deepest sympathy.

Dearesr Becky, go back in memory to Holiday Cleaners. So sorry to hear about Frank. I still live on the beach and think of you two often when I go by the bowling alley. Amazing how we get out of touch with friends and loved ones until all of a sudden itis to late.You will be in my prayers. Love, Bill Smith.
