Lise, My words cannot express the depth of the sadness I have knowing of your loss and how much he meant as a great husband, and father. I have only the fondest memories of a great lawyer, competitor, and a great legal mind. Dean became the mentor to many and one of the people his colleagues relied upon. I for one wish I had gotten to know him as a friend. I recognize the profound respect he attained and maintained as a career public servant. Our community will be worse for his loss. My thoughts are with you and your sons. Be strong.
