Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. This is one of the most difficult things we must face in this life. May it comfort you to know that others are deeply touched by your loss. But the bible assures us at Psalms 34:18 that God is near to those broken in heart and those crushed in spirit he saves. He also promises that we will be able to see our loved ones again. Jesus own words found at John 5:28,29 tells us there will be a resurrection. What a wonderful hope! He also says that soon on the earth there will be no more pain, suffering and especially death. Revelation 21:3-5 We anxiously await the day when we will no longer lose those we love. May these bible thoughts bring you comfort at this most difficult time.

Maxine – Bill – Sid and children: Words are inadequate. I hold you all in my heart and prayers. My life has been far superior to what it would have been if our darling Lydia, Maxine, Mickey had not "come in" when I was so young. You guys gave to me and mine what no "trio" ever could. Sid – you were the love of my Little Mother's Life... to have you guys with me during such hard times... was such a blessing. I grew to know you so well. Thanks for the broad shoulder, the laughter, the memories. I am a better person because of all of you. I do something every day that my Little Mother taught me. I loved her so much – and so grateful for her life. She suffers no more – – I join in your grief and know how much she loved all of you. See you soon... big hugs to all...Mary Lou [and Kristin too ~ she sends her love to you all, and is saddened for our loss]
