I am so sorry to hear of Michael's passing... He was a little guy with an enormous heart. He made a huge difference on our planet for the short time he was here. I will never forget his quick wit and honest approach to whatever he encountered. I know he is in the loving presence of his Lord and in that I rejoice...

I am quite shocked! All of us guys out here in Chitre and La Via in Los Santos Panama (the Happy Hour crew) will miss his smile and positive attitude. We were looking forward to his next visit, and the time when he would be spending a semi-retirement here with us. We will hold our own memorial at one of our favorite bars, where all the waitresses thought Mike was just the cutest guy ever.

Michael was part of a worship team that brought us into the presence of God. No calling is higher. All that, and he came to church on a Harley! What is cooler than that! You will be missed.
