Marsha, I remember when your family first started coming to church. You have all been a blessing since that time. Bill is surely rejoicing in heaven and getting acquainted with all his "heros" of the faith. I know God will comfort and sustain you now and through the times ahead. much love and prayers, Phyllis

My pop-pop will be greatly missed. I've always looked up to him for his strength, compassion, and caring heart. I'll always remember spending weekends with him and nana, watching tv together, playing with his model trains, and tinkering with various things. Although I'm all the way up here in NY, I'm glad to have had the opportunity to visit with him a few weeks ago. It was difficult seeing him in the fragile state he was in, but he will always remain in my heart as the strong, caring Lion that he was. I love you Pop-Pop Bryan Masters
