You will always be remembered Ralph very lovingly in my heart. While young and growing up you and Arlene were so kind to me. After my folks divorced it was you who helped me learn many things that I never did from my Fatherhim being away. Things such as how to work on cars and fixing things about the house. I will never forget all the wisdom you had given me as you taught me how to be a good person, a good husband and most importantly a good Christian. For certain I know that you are in the presence of our Lord as he promised that mansion in heaven for you. We will meet up again one day.
