Hi Mom, I wanted to wish you a happy anniversary. Today would have been your and dad's 46th wedding anniversary. I'm sad and upset that you left me not knowing what I should do. I got use to being in a routine with helping dad with you and now I don't know what to do with my time and myself. I'm still working here at Pharaoh's. Not happy about working here, but it is a job and it pays my bills, barely! Alex sold the place to some people from India. Brandi had her baby on September 25th. She had a baby girl named AnnRae Louise whatever Jeremy's last name is. I love you mom and always have even though at times my nerves were tested. I know that it was your mental conditions that made you act out the way you did at times. You couldn't help it and I know that. I'm sorry mom and I do love you very much!

Hi Mom, I tried to get onto the computer yesterday in the clubhouse, but the damn computer wasn't working, so I'm writing you today. I still don't believe it has been 4 months since your passing. Sometimes it seems longer and sometimes it seems like you just passed away. Pat and dad are doing fine. I'm o.k. too! I love you mom and miss you all the time. I will write to you soon. Love you Mom!

Hi Momma, I wanted to wish you a Happy Mother's Day. I also wanted to let you know that I got laid-off from Team Title on March 31st, but I'm now working at your favorite place, Pharaoh's! I love you and miss you so much. The house is really quite without you. Love ya Mom!

Hi Momma, I was sitting here at work thinking about you and wanted to write a little something. Dad is doing o.k. or at least it seems that way, but not really sure because he doesn't talk about your passing much and would just keep it to himself anyway. It seems I'm going to be the only one to be writing anything on your guestbook, but that is o.k. I will write something enough to fill up the emptiness I have since your passing. I love you momma... Time to rest!

Hi Momma, This is hard trying to deal with your passing. This past year has been difficult, but now you are in a better place with no pain. I never thought that not hearing you say, "Let's go home" would be this difficult, but it is. Your passing was all of a sudden and such a shock. It's hard to process. I will remember the good times and all the times I would make you laugh, which was easy for me to do and how much you loved us. I love and miss you so much Mom. It is going to be eerie at home with Dad and you not being there. I love you Mom and will always think and remember you. Love you Mom!
