

Pamela Rae Scott

FEB 8, 2011

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary	Page 3
Tribute Wall	Page 4

Pamela Rae Scott

FEB 8, 2011

Pamela Rae Scott, 66, of Fort Myers, passed away Tuesday, February 8, 2011 following an extended illness. She was born August 19, 1944 in St. Charles, IL and moved to Fort Myers in 1985. Pam was an artist and miniaturist, was a member of the Sanibel Shell Club, Fort Myers Shell Club, Chicago Shell Club and operated her own website, Little Enough News. Left to cherish her memory is her loving husband of 39 years, Richard T. Scott and her son, Richard Z. Scott of San Francisco, CA. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Animal Rescue Care and Rehabilitation of Wildlife. Memorial services will be held at a later date. Funeral arrangements are under the direction of Fort Myers Memorial Gardens Funeral Home, 1589 Colonial Blvd., Fort Myers, FL 33907, 239-936-0555. Online condolences may be made at: www.fortmyersmemorial.com.

Tribute Wall

Pamela Rae Scott

JP

Jerry & Robin Pardus posted:

So sorry to hear of Pam's passing. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers during this time. Jerry & Robin

October 3 at 9:43 AM

WB

Wanda Bell posted:

Dear Richard, I just can not believe that Pam has left us. I bought some molds from her a long time ago and picked them up at the Lakeland show. We again met at another show. I always looked forward to seeing her. My heart aches for you and your son. I have a painting she did for me way back in the AOL years. I'll treasure it forever. Pam was such a good person and so kind to all of us on the LEN group. She left us way to soon. My sincere condolences. Wanda

February 22 at 2:14 PM

NL

Nan Lewandoski posted:

Rick. ...I have tried many times to find the words to write to express my sadness after hearing of Pam's death. Now, having read all the lovely tributes to her on Little Enough News, I realise that just knowing her, though never meeting, is a gift I will have with me always. Her generosity, kindness, encouragement, desire to help, her wicked sense of fun and humour, her friendship, caring and love are to be treasured. So many in this miniature world are thinking of you and I hope this of comfort to you and will continue to be. Loving thoughts, Nan Lewandoski of New Zealand.

February 17 at 7:05 PM

JW

Judy Wick posted:

My deepest sympathies to you and your family. Pam was such a lovely lady and so very talented. We are blessed to have known her.

February 14 at 11:12 AM

Tribute Wall

Pamela Rae Scott

JJ

Joann Jacot posted:

I had tears in my eyes when I read the notice on Little Enough News today of Pam's passing. Even though we never met in person, she was so kind and creative. I really cherish the miniatures I was fortunate to buy from her. Also have all the LEN issues that I refer to frequently. She and I were born just a couple months apart. Sorry that our paths never crossed. My prayers are for God to comfort the family who have lost their very special wife and mother she was.

February 12 at 6:49 PM

KC

Karen Cary posted:

Pam was my inspiration when I started doing 1/4" scale. Letting me join her LittleEnoughNews group was the first amazing thing. And by Pam publishing the wonderful LEN Magazine it opened my eyes to the 1/4" scale world. I really enjoyed it when Pam and I used to talk on the telephone and of course I still have all the wonderful seafood she made for me as well as the many other types of food. I will treasure them always. Love, Karen

February 12 at 12:58 PM

CP

Carol Pitman posted:

Please accept my heartfelt condolences with your great loss of Pam. I knew her through several online miniature groups and she was a tremendous inspiration as she shared her many talents with us. Personal messages from her are cherished. Please know she generously shared her knowledge and encouragement with many around the world. Thank you for sharing her with all of us. Rick and Richard, may memories of happier times comfort you and bring you peace. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

February 12 at 12:00 PM

DM

Doris McIntyre posted:

Rick and Richard – Pam was so precious to those of us on her LEN Miniatures group. Her wit, her humor, her enormous talent and gift of sharing that talent with others will be sorely missed. May you find some comfort in knowing she was loved and respected by so many people all over the world. God bless both of you. Rest in peace, sweet Pam. You fought the good fight.

February 12 at 11:37 AM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Pamela by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit