Geez Janice, I didn't expect to hear that you passed away a few years ago. I never got to tell you, but I know you knew because I trusted you and looked to your assuredness when those craziness most confusing lunch room riots would happen. I also noticed you lived in Fort Myers. I was living in Fort Lauderdale at the time, I have driven to Fort Myers. If I had only known. Your smile is what I remember most. You changed my life for the better, and I wish I was able to tell you in person, but it's not meant to be just now. You are a wonderful person. I'm so sure your family must miss you terribly. Your friend, Donna
