Still think of you every day and I have your picture on the screen of my computer. I am still so shocked that you are no longer here. We should have been in touch and planned and had a get-together. Oh well, such is life. I will see you again, one day in the future. God bless you and Craig Jr. Together again! God rest your soul.

Craig, Listening to "Martha My Dear" by The Beatles and thinking of you. I remember we used to talk late at night with this playing in the background. Fantastic, great music with a fantastic, great guy, You will always be The Best" God rest your soul and comfort you at all times. See you in the beyond. Love you, Michael

Hey Craig, Well, it's almost 1 year now that you have passed. I just wish that I had tried harder to find you before your passing. I miss you so much. I have for years. We should have never lost track of each other. I did try to find you so many times but I failed. Then, mom told me you were gone. I still can't believe it. Loving you always, Michelle

Hey Craig, I've been thinking of you and missing you so very much. Remembering the holiday's and how wonderful they were because of you. I was thinking of how you used to hold Tiffany and walk her around to show her all of the light's you had put up and you playing Santa for the kid's. You were a great grandfather and father to me and my kid's. I will always remember the good thing's you did for all of us. I love and miss you so much. Please look over me and my family, like you always have. Love Always's, Michelle Craigles, Miss you so very much and I remember you playing santa Clause for the kids. You were one in a million and a warm, gentle human being that worked hard to see that everyone else had all they ever wanted, God bless you and I will always love the memory of you. Merry Christmas wherever you are dear Sir..

dear Craig, sitting here looking at your picture with The Beatles "goodnight" playing in the background. It's such an appropriate song to listen to as I try to deal with your passing. I miss you and will always remember all the times we spent together. shooting pool and listening to music, to name but a few. God bless you, My Brother. Your light will always burn in my soul. You were "The Best" Till we are together again...Love you...Michael

Dear Craig, been such a long time since we hung out and had all the fun we used to have. I miss those times so badly. Your voice rings about in my head all the time. Your keen wit and giving, caring nature was so well appreciated and has left such a void in the lives of those who miss you badly. I will be seeing you, soon enough I am certain. Till then, throw a steak on the grill for me. Love you much, Mike..God bless your soul!!!

Craig, My heart is filled with so much sadness now that you're gone. Knowing I'll never get to talk to you or see your face in this lifetime. I pray that we will be reunited on the other side. I remember how you used to call my son Ricky, "little turd bird" and how great of a grandfather you were to all of my kids. I miss you so much. I just wish that I had tried harder to find you! You're always in my heart and always will be. I love you Craig, Michelle

Not a day goes by that I don't think of all the great times we spent talking. Those steaks you made were the greatest and everyone will associate them to you. You were such a wonderful person. Too bad you married such a horrible person. I will never forget you and I can still hear your voice. God bless you and I wish it could all be done all over again and you would have made better/safer choices for a spouse. She destroyed you, as she has so many others. Rest in peace my good man. Love you always!!!

Craig, I have your picture for my desktop. I stare at you and feel so many sad; but happy emotions. I am devastated that we will never again do any of those fun things we did back all those years ago, which all seem like yesterday. You always played with my children when they were small and would light up in your expression whenever they came around, unlike your ex. God bless your soul and look down upon me and see the way I miss and love you so very much. You were the best!!!
