Bonnie Marie Woodhouse

FEB 10, 2009

Bonnie Marie Woodhouse, age 35, passed safely into glorious eternal life on February 10, 2009, after a courageous battle with cancer. Born to laugh, Bonnie was a delight to everyone who knew her, from her childhood days at Evangelical Christian School to graduation from Estero High School and throughout her adult life. Bonnie was born on September 3, 1973 in Lee Memorial Hospital, she was an evangelical Christian believer and was a member of Praise Tabernacle of Bonita Springs, FL. She is preceded in death by her paternal grandfather Daniel P. Woodhouse, and daughter Emma L. Woodhouse in 1997. Bonnie is survived by her parents Dan (Nancy) Woodhouse and Kathy (Paul) Hawley. Her brothers Kelly Woodhouse and Wesley Hawley, sisters Erica and Amanda Hawley, she is also survived by many grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins. Bonnie leaves her loving companion and soul mate Jerry Jinsky. Visitation will be at Fort Myers Memorial Gardens on Wednesday, Feb. 11, 2009 from 5-7 PM. Funeral services will be on Thursday, Feb. 12th at 4:00 PM. Gifts of honor may be given to Hope Hospice or Ronald McDonald House in memory of Bonnie. We were deeply saddened to hear of Bonnie's passing. We recently moved back to Florida from Georgia and didn't know. Brett called Bonnie's phone and saw the memorial tribute. We wanted you to know that we all are sharing in your loss. We would enjoy hearing from you if you would like to contact us. Her infectious laugh and love of life will be truly missed. Love Kathy, Don and Brett.
