He will be missed my me even though i live so far away, and never got to see him much after growing up and getting married and moving away, i at least knew he was there,we had a lot of fun growing up together, he was one of my favorite cousin', in our mid-teen years they called us kissin cousins,because we were so close, we had alot of fun at places like fisheatting creek,campping out with our families,when he got older he met my best friend Cindy, they got married, then i got married and moved away. I love you Cindy with all my heart,I will forever miss Kenny!!! sincerely, Anne

Just to let you know how much kenny will be missed. We are still in disbelief. He lit up a room with his smile and personality. He was such a special cousin to me growing up, I will miss him so much as will you. Please know you all are in our thoughts and prayers. we love you very much. I wish we could be there for you. I was thinking cindy, what a home coming it must be in heaven, shirley, grandma & pa lawrence white, betty, harold, freddy, cathy, my nephew david,chuck rick and more I'm sure. He probably had a big welcome. Yes he is going to be missed by so many because he was so loved by many. We love you all. I will keep in touch, I promise. Tom and Tammy
