Flo was a beloved friend and mother-in-law. I so enjoyed our frequent conversations and truly miss her very much. She has been in my thoughts often lately. I was surprised to see this notice of her death. I have informed her granddaughters Leah and Kelly of her passing. Flo meant a lot to me over the years. Her friendship will always be treasured. I send heartfelt wishes to the family for lives filled with love, peace, understanding and consideration for others.

Kay, I know you are grieving on the loss of your Mother, just as I am with Rosemary, but we can both take comfort knowing that they are no longer suffering, and are probably having a grand old time talking over old times up in heaven. My thoughts are with you, Bill
