June we are extremely saddened to hear of Russell's passing. He was a very caring and thoughtful individual. A telephone call from Russell on birthdays and holidays was a usual occurrence. Our 30 year experience together in a weekly poker group was cherished right up to the point that his physical health no longer allowed him to participate. He will be dearly missed. Dan Valentine

June, I am so sad to find out Uncle Russel has passed. As you know I tried hard to reconnect with my uncle. I'd love to hear from you and talk a little about him and my cousins. My number is (214) 679-7978. Would very much like to talk with you.

June I am so sad to hear about Russ's passing. He was such a dear friend to my husband, Richard. They both enjoyed the game of golf, especially at Beachview, meeting almost every day, at 7 a.m. to be the first golfers off the tee. Because of the two of you, we met so many dear friends here on Sanibel. May he RIP.

June I was a member along with Russ at CIYC, CIGC (Beachview) and the Sanctuary. Having known him all these years I can attest to his wit, friendliness and love of Sanibel. He will be missed by so many of us. Gene Lankford
