Loretta Claire Stahl of Fort Myers, FL, more commonly and affectionately known simply as "Lola" by her family and friends, passed away unexpectedly but peacefully on February 4, 2020. She was 98 years old.

Born in Paulding, OH, Lola was the daughter of Hoy Rhinehalt and Cleopha Ragan Rhinehalt (deceased) and was preceded in death by her husband Charles E. She married Charles Stahl in 1965 and moved to the Fort Myers area in 1969 where she became a member of the Church of the Resurrection of Our Lord in Fort Myers. In addition to enjoying a full life with many of her friends and family, Lola was an accomplished card player, golfer and was an avid reader, especially of mystery novels. After Charles passed away in 1998, Lola continued to live in the area and was most recently a resident at Brookdale Independent Living.

Grandma Lola's nickname for me was "Little Miss America", which came from a red, white and blue swimsuit I wore when very little. I was too little to remember that, but do have memories with she and my Grandpa since I can remember. I do remember riding in the car with them when little - sitting on the middle armrest between she and my Grandpa Chuck and strapped to it with a belt since there was no seatbelt there! I loved going to visit she and my Grandpa at the cottage on the Auglaize River, and visiting them in Florida. I think when I came to visit, that she would put candy in various places in the house to see how long it would take me to find it. Grandma Lola had a gentle way about her and was always interested in catching up on the latest events in my life and my family's life through the years. She enjoyed the people in her life and pictures of all the family. God Bless you Grandma and thank you for your peaceful presence with me throughout my life.
