I just learned of Claudio's passing today. I am so saddened by this news. I connected with Claudio about 10 years ago, when I was searching for Rose Hip Seed oil. I live in Omaha, Nebraska, so I never had the opportunity to meet Claudio in person. I enjoyed several long phone conversations with him and respected his knowledge on so many topics. I used his products for a long time, however, we disconnected for a few years. I recently called him on April 30th and chatted for just a few minutes. He said he was doing well and working in a mango grove. My sincere condolences to whomever sees this post. He was a really kind man and on the cutting edge of really great products. I too just found out about Claudio's passing. We go back many years although I haven't seen him for many years. I did talk to him when he called me probably a year or so ago. I also tried to contact him a month or so ago, not knowing that he had passed. I wanted to know how he and Lucia were doing with what is happening in the world today. He and I were pretty much on the same wave length Rest in Peace Claudio
