She worked for the Hendry and Palm Beach County school systems for many years until her retirement. After retiring, Elinor was a housewife, and enjoyed gardening, cooking and baking; she was famous for her butternut and pound cakes. She was also an avid amateur genealogist researcher and was a photographic historian of the Glades area. When Elinor finally decided to move closer to family, she resided in Boynton Beach. My mother was Elinor's 1st cousin. My grandmother Jewell Andrews Kennedy was her father's sister. Elinor and my mother Louie Merle Kennedy Fraiser used to write to one another. Mama passed 10 years ago. I'm sorry for your loss.

My husband & I lived next door to Elinor in Boynton Beach. We are snow birds & spent the last few winters there. She was always smiling when we saw her & always barefoot! She asked for nothing but was so appreciative of any small thing we did for her. We will miss her being there when we get back 😞. The world was a better place with Elinor in it. May she rest in peace with the Lord

We have good memories, especially via telephone, of her sharing things of the past. She had a remarkable memory. Also, we remember what a great cook she was. Sid & I will greatly miss our conversations with her. Our love to Gene & family.

Gene, Karen & family, My sincere condolences and prayers are with you during the grieving process of your beautiful mother and grandmother. I had the pleasure of knowing her for the last 15 years of her life, living across the street from her In Boynton Beach and sharing many memories. She was the best friend anyone could ever wish for. I will miss our "talks" and her voice. I was fortunate enough to speak to her a week before she passed to tell each other "I love you". RIP my dear friend. Dorothy Cookingham
