Jessica and I grew up on the same road, Lincoln Rd, in our early childhood. She was my best friend all through middle school, junior high and High School. She always made me laugh, and we always had a blast together, no matter what we were doing. My heart breaks for her mom and dad, Marilyn and Don, as well as for her daughters, Trinity and Kelly. Rest In Peace, Jessica, the world will miss you. I love you.

I remember how kind Jessica was to my daughter, Maddie. Jessica would trim her hair and she always did a fantastic job. She would play with her & treat her like gold. She bought her a scooter, candy & would write her the cutest notes. They adored each other. We will miss you Jessica. Your kindred spirit and joyful heart will always be remembered.
