Marta Hodson posted:

Bonnie was my first friend when I moved to Fort Myers in 1986. We worked together for seven years, but became lifelong friends. She taught me so much about the Fort Myers community, real estate and what a southern woman should be. (However, despite her many attempts, I never became a fan of boiled peanuts.) We shared so many of life's experiences together, both highs and lows. She was always there when I needed her. The past few days I've thought a lot about some of the crazy times we shared. I've laughed and cried. I will truly miss my friend. Much love to Jay, Alessandra, Jack and all of her family and friends. Marta Hodson
