Cruz Tirado meant a great deal to my family both in Virginia and later in Florida when many of us moved to start a new adventure. He touched many lives along his way. I met Cruz as a teen many decades ago. He was an unfailingly Cheerful, Kind, Caring person with a personality who always made you smile. Cruz truly was a blessing to all who knew & worked with him. We will always remember the Joyous occasion of Cruz's wedding in Fl. He loved his family so very much. I am certain that my parents were there to welcome him to Heaven. It is a difficult thing to lose loved ones especially when too soon. It is also a sorrowful thing to lose touch with people when our lives take so many twists, turns often as our paths diverge. We pray peace for the family & all who are mourning the loss of this fine man & his beautiful heart. Love truly never dies.
