Donna Glade-Tau posted:

I was a teacher at Golfview School in Carpentersville, IL from 1975 to 1981 where Russ was principal. He was wonderfully supportive and created a friendly, cooperative atmosphere for the faculty. I have warm memories of my six years there and still have a relationship with many of the teachers I worked with. After my husband and I retired, we looked forward to meeting up with Russ and Jody every winter we were in Florida. He was a great man and will be greatly missed. Donna Glade-Tau
