Fred (my second dad), was a very supportive, loving, and caring individual. Before Michelle and I could drive, he would get us to either skating practice or ball practice. There was always a lesson to be learned, no matter what we were doing at the time. He will be greatly missed but not forgotten. My thoughts and prayers are with you Pat, Micheal, and Michelle.

It's been said that grief is the price of love... You are grieving much today because you loved so much for so long. I pray it is a comfort to all of you that [Fred/your dad] is now healed in a way we can only long to know. God's best to each of you, love, Ruth Scheumann
