I was very saddened to learn today of Sandy's passing. Although I was in the Business School, we were long-time friends and colleagues at Wayne State University. Sandy chaired the University Promotion and Tenure Committee on which I served several times. I remember him as a very hard worker, a very smart worker, and a very fair leader. Sandy was of immense help to me when I ran into two family medical problems. I have never forgotten the time he took with me, his kindness, and the wonderful assistance he provided. I send my warm condolences to his family and many friends. John G. Maurer Emeritus Professor Wayne State University
