Aunt Fran was in my life my entire life. She always gave the best hugs, the sweetest smile ever and the most sincere advice on this earth. She had a pure love of life, believed you should live it to the fullest. If you had a desire to do something, do it. No regrets. Which is why she did zip lines in Branson, rode a motorcycle in her 90's and danced with Elvis. Also remember how much she did for women in the business world and got people in her life on the dance floor. She was a wonderful wife, mother, friend, example of complete modesty. She always said she shouldn't be here at this age. However, all of us who loved her so would always raise out glasses to Tiny Bubbles, get her to wherever she wanted to go. She loved fiercely and truly. And we all are so blessed to have had her in our lives for our entire lives. You live on in all of us and i, for one, will miss you forever. Until we meet again, Don't Worry, Be Happy. ❤️

Frances Keogh was my Mother In Law since I was 18 years old. She was my second mother, my friend, my modeling buddy, grandmother to my children and a woman with the biggest heart. She always introduced me as her daughter not a daughter in law. I was so lucky to have this Sweet, blue eyed strong woman in my life. She loved her family, her grandchildren and Jesus. Always reminded me that I will always be part of her family. She welcomed Pat and his family with open arms. She adored Pat and considered him as a son. She is home with Jesus, Daniel, Jimmy and her beloved Jack. I Love you Momma Keogh and I will always carry you in my heart.

Dear Jessica and family, I want to give my deepest sympathy for your loss. Your grandmother was an amazing Godly woman to whom I am so thankful and blessed to have known and served for over two years. She changed my life in many ways. She was one of the strongest and most faithful woman I've known in my life. I will always be thankful that the Lord brought us into each other's paths even for this short time. Prayers of comfort and peace during this time. Love in Christ, Shannon S.
