Asia Nichole Moffatt

AUG 19, 1982 - FEB 10, 2022

Asia Nichole Moffatt, 39, was born to this world on August 19, 1982 and born into eternal life February 10, 2022.

Asia is survived by her loving husband Brian, and loving son Kamryn. She is also survived by her loving sister Heather (Mike); niece Kayla; nephews Mike and Hunter; Moms Colleen, Patty, and Rita; and many, many extended family members and friends.

She was an active member of the NA community with service and support to so many. Her truly selfless love and caring for all of us will be dearly missed every day. She touched so many here and truly was our “glue”. She will be missed and loved forever in our hearts.

A Visitation for Asia will be held on Tuesday, February 22nd, 2022 at 1:00PM at Fort Myers Memorial Gardens Funeral Home. A Celebration of Life service will start at 2:00PM, with burial to follow.

Asia was truly an angel in my life. She gave me so much teal world wisdom that I think of everyday. I miss you a lot Asia. You're with God now so I guess you're lucky but I felt lucky just to know you an have you help me guide my life. My condolences to everyone who knew Asia she was a truly good woman. An to Asia's family I just want you to know she helped me so much and I'm forever grateful that she came into my life. I was sitting all by myself and her little angelic face approached me an was so nice to me. ❤️💜💛💜💛

Dear Brian: Whitney and I send to you, and to all who are grieving our most heartfelt condolences for this so sudden and unexpected loss of your beautiful wife Asia. I did not know Asia, but only heard from others of her kindness and generosity and of your love for each other. Please know that we are praying for you, for Kamryn and all who are missing her, that you may be comforted and supported through this difficult time. With love, your cousin, Dan, Austin TX

I only met Asia once. I met her at the hospital where Chuck Moffatt (Brian's dad) was gravely ill. She and Brian arrived direct from the airport; they had arranged to escort Rita (Chuck's wife) for a visit. All of them were very tired and also worried. Chuck was so excited to again see his wife after a lengthy absence. He said, " She's beautiful. Isn't she beautiful!"Rita was in a wheelchair a distance away from Chuck. The room was crowded. Chuck wanted Rita close. Asia stepped into action: She spun the wheelchair around, actually lifted the entire back side, so she could maneuver Rita's chair close to the bedside. She told me her dad was also in a wheelchair so she was pretty dog at it. I was impressed with Asia's calm after the long trip.Chuck was really happy. That was the last time I saw my brother.May they both Rest In Peace.Brian and Coleen, you have my sympathy. Auntie Marolyn
