Kaylee Ann "Angel Girl" Burton

JAN 20, 1999 - APR 27, 2022

She was born with a fire inside of her, and spent her life trying to protect it; while also trying to protect her family and friends. She was one of a kind, with eyes the shade of the deep riches below the earth's surface. Her hair was always changing, and a new tattoo was always on her mind, or body; but that's what made Kaylee, Kaylee. Family was the Centerpiece in her life, and throughout life that's what motivated her to try and do better. Her Granny was her keeper someone Kaylee could always count on to shield and make her feel safe. Her mom was her protector, and Best friend, throughout Kaylee's whole life they had a special bond; her mom never gave up on her and always did everything in her power to make sure she was taken care of. Tyler (the oldest of the brothers) was her ride or die, these two had a bond that no one could replace. He spoke few words, while Kaylee could tell stories for hours and that's what made it balance perfectly. She also loved food, but the person's food she loved and always bragged about was her 'chef' little sister. The two sisters were very much alike, and in the end that's why they argued so much. But no amount of hate or dislike could ever outweighs the love they had for each other as sisters. Now Kaleb, he is special, being the youngest out of the four; this was Kaylee's baby. She spoiled Kaleb and gave him whatever he wanted, just to see a smile on his face; Just to hear his cute little giggle. She loved him, and would have given him the world. Alex, was her newest and only sibling from her dad's side, and for him she promised to do better thanl their dad. She wanted to do better, and always did her best to stand back up when life got hard. What kept her going, was family, she always wanted her family to be happy and taken care of. She was beautiful, and deserved so much more than what the world gave her. She had her flaws, but no one can say they don't have at least one good memory with this wild soul. She will be missed more than word can even start to describe, but she is finally at peace. Fly high with your 'Kaykay' Angel girl.

Deborah Burton posted:

I have a special bond and love with each one of my grandchildren because of their unique personality and traits. My Kaylee Ann was so special and we absolutely adored each other. I was amazed at Kaylee's desire to make her family happy that she forgot to make herself happy at times, and fought some demons during her life on earth. I will miss her beautiful face and spirit. I know she is in Heaven now with her Grandpa and other loved ones. We both were baptized the same day, in the same righteous water because we accepted Jesus Christ to forgive us of our sins, believed in him and gave our heart to him. One day, according to God's Will, I will be in Heaven with Kaylee.
