Joan B Daignault

JUL 6, 1932 - MAY 4, 2022

Joan B. Daignault, 89, a resident of Fort Myers, FL since 2008, formerly of Bethel, CT passed away Wednesday, May 4, 2022 under the care of Hope Hospice, Fort Myers, FL. She was born July 6, 1932 in Stamford, CT to the late Herman J. and Germaine (nee Roberts) Beaudoin.

Joan was a devout Catholic woman who loved her faith. She was a fierce advocate for the dignity of life especially the unborn. She loved children, most especially her grandchildren and great Grandchildren with a special kind of love... and they all knew just how much they were loved by her. Her favorite hobby was playing cards with her sisters and losing was not an option.

She was a homemaker until her children were off to school and then started a work career first at Weston Woods Publishing Weston, Ct., and then at Union Savings Bank in Danbury, Ct. until she retired in 2004. She is preceded in death by her loving husband, Andrew Alphonse Daignault.

Joan is survived by her loving children, Joan Laracy (John) of Paxton, MA; Daniel Daignault of New Milford, CT and Douglas Daignault of Newton, CT; three sisters, Shirley Demet of Milford, CT, Claire Meyer of New Fairfield, CT and Michelle Jakielo of Wethersfield, CT; six grandchildren, Kyle, Brendan, Katelyn, Jaime, Alexander and Luc; eight great grandchildren, Mariana, Stella, Julia, Brenna, Elizabeth, Clare, Jack and Maggie; as well as many extended family members and friends.

A Mass of Christian Burial will take place at St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church , 46 Church Hill Road , Newtown, Ct .on Wednesday May 25, 2022 at 11:00 AM. Followed by burial in St. Johns Cemetery Norwalk, Ct.

In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to Community Pregnancy Clinic P.O. Box 7608 Naples Florida 34101 or online at supportcpci.com in loving memory of Joan B. Daignault.

I have fond memories of Aunt Joan. She always gave a cozy hug and a big smile whenever we were able to have a family get together. I always felt that she cared so much for me and cherished the family time spent together. The Mass was beautiful I was able to watch from Florida. Sending love and condolences to you Dan, Doug, and Joanie and your families 💙 Karen Daignault Snyder

Remembrances of Aunt Joan -- a kind word of encouragement, a lovely smile, and laugh that made everyone happy to be around her. How she loved her kids and grandkids! Everyone should have an Aunt Joan. With love and affection, Cathy (Rowe) Reed and husband, Brent. God bless all.
