Thank you Ann, for reaching out to offer to have me stay with you in your home in Verona when I was a young teen dealing with the trauma of my parents facing marital challenges (1983?).I appreciated you seeing a need for me to get out of there. I wish we had stayed in touch after all that happened. Somehow I trust and believe you are aware of it all from where you are now .. as a beautiful spirit .. soar, shift, learn, celebrate! And if you're able, let's visit forcoffee and Greek sweets in the dream world ✨💛 ~Lara Noble

My deepest sympathy to the Kratsios family upon the death of Ann. Hope that her passing was peaceful. She was devoted to all of you. Thankfully, she was somewhat clueless as to what went on with her teenage sons and their friends! No doubt you all will miss her love and warmth. Hold her tight in your memories.

Dear Kratsios Family, My deepest sympathy on the loss of Ann. She was a wonderful mother, and we were blessed to have her and George as our neighbors. I remember her laugh as she and George would dance, and when she would find parts of life that she enjoyed. Mary and I have the shish kebob recipe that we have shared with friends, so her food will live on!Chuck and Mary Cross
