So many amazing stories and times; dad (Charles) always loved telling stories of the many shinanigans uncle Bill and he experienced as kiddos. Hitchhiking to New Orleans was one of my all-time favorites, oh fun adventures they had! Lots of love to you aunt Darlene, and keeping all y'all our thoughts. Kristi (Sharp) Vogt

I just found that Bill had died. Bill/Darlene, Sylvia and I met when we lived in "faculty housing" (residents at the medical center, graduate students) at the Univ MO in the 60's. We shared grills, cookouts, babysitting, lawn mowers, lots of beer and stories. We visited them at the farm just outside of Columbia. I visited them once in Fort Myers when Bill was sick; met a grown up Cindy; caught each other up in the lives of the kids. Ah... the memories...my heartfelt sympathy Darlene.

I called Bill and Darlene about the end of September and we had a long visit. Bill and John worked in Jefferson City and rode back and forth together for a year or more . They shared wonderful stories. We loved coming to visit when you had the farm outside Columbia. I shared the moments of John's passing March 30th.It was wonderful reliving special moments shared by both our families. Thank you for notifying me. My love and sympathy are with you.. I am living with our youngest son and daughter in law and two grand sons.. May God's peace surround all of you. Cris De Groot
