Fiona Brandt

Fiona Brandt was a caring wife, mother, grandmother and friend. She left this world after a brief illness on November 23, 2022 at age 89. She was born in Wellington, Shropshire, England to Adelbert C.V. and Carrie Mary Biddulph on August 23, 1933. Fiona became a US citizen on December 18, 1970 and worked in the health care field and school systems during her working years in both Connecticut and Fort Myers, Florida. She was known for her lovely soprano singing voice and was a member in various clubs that allowed her to demonstrate this talent. She was an avid gardener throughout her life and especially loved orchids and carnations. Married to Duane Brandt on August 13, 1994 in Fort Myers, Florida, she was blessed with a happy marriage and many happy memories.

Fiona has three children; Gaynor Thomas (husband Sherman Forbell), Carol Tyrer (husband Jeff Fish) and Beverly Jayne Tyrer. She has 4 grandchildren; Ryan, Heather, Evan and Brittany and 5 great grandchildren; Cypress, Bodhi, Ethan, Alex, and Rosalie. She also has a cousin, Patricia Riley (husband Richard) in Stamford, Lincolnshire, England. In addition to her parents, she is predeceased by brothers Reginald Boycott and Keith Biddulph. In addition to her family, those who will miss Fiona are her closest friend, Susan Messing of Fort Myers, Florida, sister-in-law, Kathy Brandt of North Carolina, and a host of extended family and friends cherished throughout her life.

It is with love that Fiona's family ask you to join us in a private celebration of her life of your own choosing.

Fiona was a loyal and true friend to our mother, Lily Downing. Her steadfast support and endless kindness are what we will long remember about her. She loved her little dog and loved visiting England and had a marvelous laugh. We are so grateful for the gift of her life and her friendship with our mom. Sending love and prayers for your peace in her passing, Becky Downing(pelley) John Downing and Betty Downing
