Grammie, I will think of you when I play card games, especially cribbage
And when I plant flowers that the butterflies, bees and hummingbirds love
When I make a cup of Yorkshire tea and when I paint
I will continue to sing sentimental journey when I can't sleep, like you did for all of us kids
So many lovely memories to think of you by. I will tell you all about my visit to your England when we meet again.
Love you forever
