Ann was such an important part of our lives for not only bringing us together at Indiana University but also for over seeing the development of our relationship. We so enjoyed the times we spent together in Bloomington, Parkersburg, Lowell and Ft. Myers. She will be missed but she will always have a place in our hearts. Marcia and Kurt

So many memories of all the times we spent together. One of my first was playing bridge while all five of our kids were asleep on the Murphy bed in your little apartment above the old Oakland school house.
