Janina Louise Lobossiere

JAN 4, 1939 - JAN 14, 2024

Janina Louise Labossiere, 85, of Fort Myers passed away peacefully on January 14, 2024. Janina was born January 4, 1939, to Peter and Sophia (Kwiatkowski) Dziewietin in Worcester, MA.

Janina has called Florida her home since 1994. Janina was received into the Carmelite Order in December 2001, in which she was active until her health declined. She loved cats. She was loved by most of the residence and staff of the assisted living facility that has been her home for many years. Janina always had a friendly smile and kind word or compliment to those she encountered. After fracturing her ankle with a fall, Janina went to rehabilitation followed by skilled nursing. It was there that she enjoyed coloring and having her nails done in various colors.

Janina is preceded in passing by her husband, Russell, and sisters Wanda, Hedy, Sophia, and infant brothers John, and her twin Joseph.

Janina leaves her loving memory with her survivors, sister Stephanie, and brothers Edward and Walter and many nieces and nephews.

Fort Myers memorial Gardens has been chosen in caring for Janina's final arrangements. There will be a mass service at St. Francis Xavier Church on Thursday, January 25, 2024, at 11AM.

Joseph Topper lit a candle in honor of Janina.

I had the incredible honor to visit Janina several times on Sundays on behalf of St. John XXIII. She was always kind and put a smile on my face. My prayers go to her family and friends. We only shared a little bit of time but I am thankful nonetheless.
