SEP 30, 1942 - APR 4, 2024

Carol Ann Brickett Cesarek of North Fort Myers, FL, passed away on April 4, 2024. She was born on September 30, 1942, the daughter of Eugene Brickett and Eileen Patricia Teevan Brickett Hoyt.

She is survived by her loving husband and partner of over 38 years, Edward Stanley Cesarek, her stepson Edward S. Cesarek, Jr. and wife Marie, her grandson Michael Cesarek and wife Nicole, great grandsons Luke, Jacob and Caleb Cesarek, stepdaughter Terri Cesarek, daughter-in-law Shawne Bowman, grandson Justin and granddaughter Lindsey Bowman; sisters and brothers Shirley Tucker, Eugene Brickett, Eileen Brickett, Sharon Parise and Paul and Kathy Hoyt and many nieces and nephews. Carol is predeceased by her sons Eugene Bowman and Mark Bowman, brother David Brickett, sister Marilyn and her husband Maury Clark.

Carol was very giving of herself and was very active in church and community activities. Carol was an encouragement to anyone in need, giving advice like “take that first step of a tedious job to get it done!”, lending a hand or offering a prayer. She had a servants heart for her husband, her family, her friends and her church. Her faith in God was unwavering. She loved to cook and especially to bake. She was always prepared to whip up some cookies, a bundt cake or an orange jello with carrots dessert for a picnic. She loved camping and spent many weekends with Ed in their various campers driving to different campgrounds throughout Maine. Carol enjoyed cards and games such as dominoes, card bingo, skipbo and 3’s.
