Growing up with Sandy in my life was a gift. She always had the love of Jesus in her heart, but she would have been a light in a dark world even without Jesus's help. Her warmth and kindness showed through in everything she did, and I am blessed to have known her. She will be missed.

Jesus made Sandy and I forever friends! I will always remember her love for Jesus and ministering to the "least of these" for Him. She was a wonderful, loving mother to her two sons, Israel and Jesse. Sandy was an artist extraordinaire, a wonderful teacher, and a humble servant of the Lord Jesus. Like many, I miss her, but look forward to the day when we meet again. I know she is with the Lord Jesus in the place that he prepared just for her. John14. Hallelujah!!!
