My memory of Jean was with here always in the kitchen, whether we were over at her house or at a reunion. She made sure no one left hungry! And she always had a smile on her face. We are so sorry for the loss of her. Tom and Cheryl

Jean and Larry were quite the inspiration for a young married girl in the '60s. Even though they had a family of their own - 6 at that time - they still took time to visit us and have us over for meals and share with us what they had. So warmhearted! Long after, as our own family grew older, we realized how BUSY they must have been with raising a family. Love her so much. She and Larry leave quite a legacy, as did their parents before them - and I can see their children are also doing. God bless them all. Gert and John Sargent
