I met Robert when I was a teenager in Port Charlotte, Florida in the 1980s. We played volleyball on the Gumbee's Windsurfing Team. Before I got to know him, I remember during a volleyball break he began singing and I mentioned something about how he has a nice singing voice, which looking back makes me laugh at the understatement of his talent! He then told me he was an opera singer. Over the years, Robert became a family friend and was generous and caring. I am so glad to have met him.

Professor John W. Mize, Ph.D. posted:

It was great and good fortune to have enjoyed Mr. Goodloe's consummate musical artistry, both in live performances and radio broadcasts over at 13 year period(1969-1982). Further, we also had a friendship(as it were) on Facebook since 2011. He certainly came across as not only a superlative musician, but a warm , gracious, and courteous gentleman. Condolences to the family at this time.
