In Loving Memory of Eric "Snoopy" Galvan Gone Too Soon, Forever in Our Hearts

It has been five years since Eric "Snoopy" Galvan left us, and though he is no longer with us in body, his spirit and memory live on in the hearts of all who knew him.

Eric was a hardworking and loving man who brought light into the lives of everyone he touched. His caring smile, always ready to brighten someone's day. His laugh, infectious of his warmth and kindness he shared with the world. His dependability was unmatched—if you needed help, Eric was always the first to offer his hand, no matter the circumstance.

While Eric was young, his life was filled with meaning and purpose. He cherished his family deeply, and the most important people in his life were his mother and sister. Their bond was unbreakable, a testament to the love and support they shared through thick and thin.

Eric's presence made the world a better place for those who had the honor of knowing him. He will always be remembered as a good person with a pure heart, and his legacy of love and kindness continues to inspire us every day.

I know why God would want you close to Him, Eric—because you are an angel. You were too special for this world, and now you watch over us, a guardian from above.

As we celebrate his life five years later, we remember the joy, love, and laughter he brought into our lives. Though we miss him dearly, we find comfort in knowing that Eric's impact on this world remains—strong, beautiful, and lasting.

We love you, Snoopy. Forever in our hearts.
