Greg Eggenberg

MAY 4, 1950 - DEC 27, 2024

Greg Drew Eggenberg, 74, passed away peacefully, in hospice care, at his residence on December 27, 2024. He was born in St. Louis, Mo. on May 4, 1950, the son of Forrest and Maryland (Richmond) Eggenberg.

Greg graduated from Normandy Sr. High School and attended Georgia Tech and Georgia State. Although his endeavors were varied, he was honored by more than one employer for his talents, excellence and devotion to his work.

Greg had many hobbies, including gardening and cooking. He placed third in a rose competition at the Minnesota State Fair. His interest in cooking came a bit later and fostered an interest in gaining a degree in culinary arts.

In addition to his parents, Greg was predeceased by his brothers, Gary and Guy, and his sister, Gwen. Surviving are his son Eric and wife Thao, his grandchildren Adam, John, Kate, Kevin and Grace, and his brother Grant. Greg is also survived by nieces and nephews who hold him dear.

Greg was a member of St. Michael Lutheran Church in Fort Myers. He also attended bible study at Fort Myers Christian Church.

Greg will be missed by all those who came to know him.

For as long as I can remember Grandpa Greg was incredibly kind and sensitive to my sister and I. As a young kid I enjoyed being around his calm and collected demeanor. He always was so thoughtful on every birthday and every little holiday. I remember all the times throughout my childhood my sister and I "helped" cook during the holidays with him. Those times with him were always fun. I will greatly miss him.

My grandpa was the kind of person who could light up a whole room with his humor and bright personality. He was giving, warm, and full of love. He had a talent for storytelling, and I'll always love the tales he shared about our family and my father's younger days—each one filled with hijinks and life. Christmases with him were always special. He was such a festive man! He'd pitch in with cooking, play cards with us, and always make me laugh. He was truly one of a kind, and I'll forever hold him close to my heart.

When thinking about the time I spent with Grandpa Greg, there's one consistent image that forms in my mind. It's of his laughing and chuckling. I don't think he could go without chuckling every other sentence, but that just shows what kind of person he was: gentle and care-free. We love him and will miss him greatly.

Grandpa Greg wasn't the grandpa I was born with but he sure did love my brother and I like we were his own blood-related grandchildren. I always loved hearing stories of his own childhood and all the little mischiefs that he got up to. He was a kind, brave, and resilient man and will be missed and forever loved.
