Adele J Galipo

APR 23, 1939 - FEB 19, 2026

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of a beloved grandmother, mother, wife, sister, and great-grandmother, whose life was defined by love, resilience, and devotion to her family.

Born in Italy, she courageously immigrated to the United States in 1955, carrying with her a deep appreciation for family, faith, and tradition. She built a beautiful life rooted in hard work and sacrifice, always placing the needs of her loved ones above her own. Her journey was one of strength and grace, and she never forgot the values of her homeland, which she lovingly passed down through generations.

She was the heart of her family and the soul of her home. Her kitchen was a place of comfort, laughter, and unforgettable meals, where recipes were shared along with stories and love.

Nothing brought her greater joy than caring for her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She took pride in being present for them—offering guidance, warmth, and unconditional love.

She leaves behind a legacy of kindness, strength, and deep family bonds. Her love will live on in the traditions she created, the lessons she taught, and the countless lives she touched. She will be profoundly missed but forever remembered.

She is survived by her three children, Frank (Michelle Galipo) Nunzio , and Robertino , her two sisters, Flora and Mima, her six grandchildren Anthony, Angelina , Susan, Vincent (Antoinette Ingrassia), Caitlin (Renee Land) and Robertino Galipo Jr (Renee Land) and her six great grandchildren, Collin, Patrick, John, Luca, Arleanna, and Enzo.
