“ The most wonderful memory I have, as being the oldest nephew of my Uncle Steve, is that I never, ever heard an unkind word said about Steve Hudak by anybody. He was such a kind thoughtful and generous person. He’s always had a sweet smile, and he was always a very special man in my life. He was an usher for my wedding ceremony. The good natured spirit of Steve Hudak will certainly live on, in the hearts of all who had the honor of knowing him!!

Love Beyond,

Michael “Skip” Hudak

“ His demeanor was so special. Impossible not to love , if you just met him or he was your life time friend, neighbor, or in my case - a treasured Uncle ;) My favorite - golfing with Uncle Steve , watching magic with a stick and a ball. He’s puffing that pipe the whole while; laughing, loving , playing and enjoying life and the game of golf . Take one last puff of his pipe , set the pipe down on the tee box marker, and spank a golf ball most usually down the center of the damn fairway every time. It was a beautiful thing to watch , my fondest memory by far - I love you Uncle Steve , if I grow up , I wanta be just like you
So much love, hurts the heart
